This album is being loaned to you for the purpose of making a purchase decision. Acceptance of the loan of this album and pictures constitutes an agreement to the following terms.

(1) The album is to be returned to the photographer in 30 days or less. If you need additional time to place an order, it is your responsibility to make arrangements with the photographer to agree upon an extension date.

(2) If the album is not returned to the photographer within the allotted time, the selling retail price of the album and pictures, excluding any discounts, will be charged to you and you will be billed by the photographer. You agree to pay any collection fees and/or attorney fees resulting in non payment of the album and pictures.

(3) If the album and pictures are returned after the one month period and no extension agreement was made, there will be a $50.00 late charge and interests on the minimum order.

(4) This agreement is the responsibility of the person receiving the album and pictures in the event it is not picked up by the bride or groom.
